

*Grant Takes Command: From the Wilderness to Cold Harbor
Saturday & Sunday
April 17-18 2010*

Join historian/guide Ed Bearss as we cover the Battles the Wilderness, Spotsylvania, North Anna River, Cold Harbor and Yellow Tavern.

Headquarters for this tour will be the Fredericksburg Hospitality House at 2801 Plank Road (U.S. Route 3) Fredericksburg, VA 22401 Tele 540-786-8321
Reservation Code CWT1
Lodging is $89/night double occupancy

*Chancellorsville : Lee's
Greatest Victory
Saturday & Sunday
May 1-2 2010*

Join Ed Bearss as we cover the famous battle of Chancellorsville. We'll spend two full days visiting the sites made famous by Lee and Jackson. We'll follow the flank march conducted by Jackson and we'll destroy Howard's 11th Corps. We'll even stand you in the original road Jackson used for this daring operation. In addition, we'll also stand you on the spot where Jackson was mortally wounded. Other stops will include Hazel Grove, Fairview, Salem Church and the stonewall at Marye's Heights.

Lodging at the Fredericksburg Hospitality House at 2801 Plank Road (U.S. Route 3) Fredericksburg, VA 22401 Tele 540-786-8321
Lodging is $89/night double occupancy
Reservation Code CWT2

*Six Days with the Blue & Gray
Sunday through Friday
June 13-18 2010*

Join us for this six-day tour of the Civil War featuring 1st Manassas, Antietam, Harper's Ferry, Cold Harbor, Chancellorsville, Petersburg, Pamplin Park, Gaines' Mill, Malvern Hill, Wilderness, Spotsylvania, and an entire day at Gettysburg.

Call for separate flyer about this tour.

Leading this tour will be historian/guides
Ed Bearss, Jeff Wert,
Dennis Frye, Bob Krick &
John Hennessy

Headquarters for this tour will be the Hampton Inn – Manassas 7295 Williamson Blvd Manassas, VA 20109 Tele (703) 369-1100
Reservation Code CWT
Lodging is $119/night double occupancy

*Sheridan in the Shenandoah
Saturday & Sunday
June 18-19 2010*

Walk along with Ed Bearss as he takes you to the dramatic battlefields of 3rd Winchester, Cedar Creek and Fisher's Hill. We'll retrace Sheridan's famous ride and take you to newly opened sites, not previously accessible, on the 3rd Winchester battlefield.

Headquarters for this tour will be the Holiday Inn 333 Front Royal Pike Winchester, VA Tele 540-667-3300 Res Code Civil War Tours
Lodging is $ 89/night double occupancy

*The Ultimate Gettysburg Tour
Monday thru Friday
July 26 – 30 2010*

This tour, led by guide Ed Bearss, will feature three days covering the Battle of Gettysburg. Historian Jeff Wert will act as the guide for the famous events such as Pickett's Charge, while Mark Snell will lead the group to a host of obscure sites on the famous battlefield. Lee's retreat from will be covered by Ted Alexander.

Call for separate flyer about this tour.

Headquarters for this tour will be the Days Inn at 865 York Road (U.S. Route 30) in Gettysburg, PA 17325 (717)-334-0030
Reservation Code is CG0430
Lodging is $85/night double occupancy

*Gettysburg : The Second Day
Saturday & Sunday
September 11 - 12 2010*

This is the tour you've been waiting for – two full days with Ed Bearss leading you to all of the sites associated with the decisive day at Gettysburg. Culp's Hill, the Wheatfield, Devil's Den, the Peach Orchard, East Cemetery Hill, Longstreet's flank march and of course Little Round Top and the famous 20th Maine will be featured stops.

Headquarters for this tour will be the Days Inn at 865 York Road in Gettysburg, PA 17325 (717)-334-0030 Reservation Code CG0432
Lodging is $85/night double occupancy

Antietam: McClellan v. Lee

*Saturday & Sunday
September 18 - 19 2010*

Join Ed Bearss for the most comprehensive tour we've ever offered on the Battle of Antietam. We'll spend a day examining the sites commonly associated with the battle and we'll take you to newly opened sites on the battlefield, such as the final attack trail. Also, we'll follow the Irish Brigade to the Bloody Lane and go in to the Cornfield with the Texas Brigade.

Headquarters will be the Sheraton Four Points at 1910 Dual Highway Hagerstown, MD 21740 (301) 790-3010
Reservation Code CWTOUR
Lodging is $80/night double occupancy

*Riding with Custer & Stuart
Cavalry Operations at Gettysburg & Pickett's Charge
Friday thru Sunday
October 8 - 10 2010*

We'll start with Ed Bearss on Friday with Corbit's Charge and follow Stuart's ride to Gettysburg. On Saturday we'll follow the retreat of Lee's army from Gettysburg to Falling Waters. Sunday's tour will be devoted to the 3rd day at Gettysburg, which will include a walking tour of Pickett's Charge! We'll also visit East Cavalry Field and cover the action at Culp's Hill.

Call for separate flyer on this tour.

Headquarters for will be the Days Inn at 865 York Road in Gettysburg, PA 17325 (717)-334-0030 Reservation Code CG0431
Lodging is $85/night double occupancy

About Our Battlefield Tours

Each weekend battlefield tour is $300. The enrollment fee includes two-days on the bus/van touring the battlefield sites with one of our guide/historians.

In addition, we'll also have two evening lectures at the hotel focusing on the particular battle(s) we're touring that weekend.

Our tours also include breakfast and lunch each day and, a detailed tactical map packet for each participant.

Our Guide/Historians

Ed Bearss is quite simply the most prolific battlefield tour guide in the business.

Ted Alexander is the chief historian at the Antietam National Battlefield.

Jeff Wert is recognized as one of the Civil War's finest historians.

Robert K. Krick is an authority on the Army of Northern Virginia and Stonewall Jackson.

Dennis Frye is no stranger to anyone who studies the Civil War. He has been leading Civil War battlefield tours for twenty-five years.

Mark Snell is the director of the Civil War Center at Shepherd University.

John Hennessy is the chief historian at the Fredericksburg- Spotsylvania National Military Park.

Robert E.L. Krick is the chief historian at the Richmond National Battlefield.

Civil War Tours 2010

Presented by David A. Ward

*Civil War Tours
124 Huntington Road
Winchester, CT 06098*

www.civilwartours.org

dward @ civilwartours.org

860-485-3603 cell

